Master Hiron John was born and bred in Luton town and some would say he was a troublesome child but if it wasn't for him taking up martial arts at the age of 10 years old he probably would have chosen the wrong path in life, so really martial arts saved his life.

TaeKwon-Do is a military art that was founded by General Choi Hong Hi; he was a general in the Korean army. It's the only scientific art known to man and is the only martial art that rewards you with degrees not Dan's. It's a way of life that hopefully one day will be understood by those who join; worldwide it has over 60 million followers within over 120 countries, probably more and is the only Martial Art recognised by the UK government as an education.

It not only keeps you fit but also teaches you a path of discipline, integrity, perseverance, mental confidence, courage and much much more!!!!

All we ask is that you come along to the two introductory lessons £7.50 children £8.50 adults to decide if TaeKwon-Do is for you.

Couple's horror as pet cat is labelled 'waste'

BY KATHRYN CAIN AND
LAUREN ARCHELL
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A COUPLE from Dunstable say they are 'devastated' after claiming that council officers told them their dead cat was regarded as 'general waste'.

On September 26, Victoria Whicker, 29, and partner Dave Grimmer, 28, of Leyland Road, lost their two-year-old tabby, Yoley, when he was tragically run over.

He had been wearing a collar with their phone number on it, and had been micro-chipped, when he was seen at the side of Brewers Hill Road by local residents.

The couple were led to believe his body had been collected by the council. But when the couple contacted Central Bedfordshire Council to try and get Yoley's body back to bury him, they were told to speak to 'general waste'.

Victoria said: "We were shocked and couldn't believe what we were hearing."

"Yoley was part of the family and all we wanted was to bury him properly. I have now lost hope that we will be able to do that."

The authority says none of its contractors collected Yoley but that its waste contractors are expected to check for ID and scan domestic pets wherever possible.

A spokeswoman said: "We aim to treat all of our customers in a courteous and thoughtful way."

"We are sorry this referral did not meet the customers' expectations but we did try to provide all the information we could to Mr Grimmer."

"We have endeavoured to pursue the relevant parties and provide feedback – however we have been informed by our contractors they have not collected any pet from this location nor has any animal been taken to our Highways depot."

Victoria and Dave are now campaigning for a change in the law so that councils have to scan dead cats for a microchip, as is done with dogs.

To take their petition to parliament they need 100,000 signatures.

Victoria said: "Lots of pet owners that I have spoken to have been shocked that the law about micro-chipping applies to dogs and not cats."

"We were responsible owners and made sure Yoley was chipped and had a collar – but still that didn't legally entitle us to be informed when he was killed, which doesn't seem right."

To sign the petition, visit: <http://epetitions.direct.gov.uk/petitions/53894>.

DEVASTATED: Victoria Whicker and Dave Grimmer are now campaigning for it to become law for councils to scan deceased cats for a microchip, after receiving no information about 2-year-old Yoley (inset)

Court hears office owner 'failed to pay £1.2m in tax'

A LUTON businessman failed to pay the Revenue income tax and VAT totalling £1.2 million pounds over a period of 11 years, Luton Crown Court has heard.

Mr Mohammed Farook, 53, should have paid the money based on the rent he charged to tenants in Stuart House, an office block he owned in Upper George Street, Luton.

The court was told that one of those tenants who rented office space from the office block was Luton Borough Council.

It was only when an accountant at the authority, who was carrying out a review of council expenditure on property in 2011, discovered Mr Farook's VAT number to be invalid that the inaccuracies were brought to light.

In fact the number had been cancelled by the Revenue nine years earlier as no payments had ever been received from the defendant.

When questioned, Mr Farook, who is not in court for the trial and has no legal representative, claimed he did not have to pay income tax in this country, because he hadn't lived in the UK for the last 20 years and spent only 20 to 25 days in the country per year.

He added that he hadn't been aware his tenants had been asked to pay VAT as part of their quarterly bills.

The trial continues.

'Winnie', 81, died nine days after sex attack

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@lunmedia.co.uk

THE FAMILY of a pensioner who died nine days after being sexually assaulted in her own home said she was 'never the same' after the attack.

At an inquest into her death on Thursday, the three sisters of Winnifred 'Winnie' Smith, 81, of St Andrew's Lane, Houghton Regis, said that she was a 'happy' and 'social' person who maintained her independence despite suffering with bowel cancer which spread to her liver.

Younger sister, Betty Cook, said: "We were all very close. If you tried to do anything for her she would say she could do it herself. Afterwards it really destroyed her, she was never the same."

Amphill Coroner's Court heard that on March 18 this year, Darren Emmerson forced his way into Winnie's home and pushed her to the floor. He sexually assaulted her for 45 minutes. Unable to get up, the pensioner had to drag herself to the phone to call for help.

She died of cardiac arrest at Sharnbrook Lodge in Houghton Regis on March 27 after the attack rendered her immobile.

Emmerson admitted the assault and was detained at a secure hospital indefinitely under the Mental Health Act in August.

Giving evidence at the inquest, Dr Olaf Biedrzycki, a forensic pathologist, said: "It is important to stress that given her state of health it is entirely possible that she could have died at any time."

"It is more likely than not the assault led to the immobility."

Dr Biedrzycki told the court that Winnie had severe coronary and liver disease and that 80 per cent of her liver had been taken over by an aggressive tumour.

Recording a narrative verdict, coroner Tom Osborne said: "When someone knocked on the door she thought it was a neighbour."

"But she was subjected to a sexual assault which lasted 45 minutes."

"The family tell me that from that moment she was never the same person."

"She then deteriorated and was seriously ill with cancer and cardiac failure and no doubt her immobility caused by the attack added to that."

He ruled that Winnie had died of natural causes following an assault nine days prior to her death.

Collapse of school's academy plan 'regrettable'

ACADEMY sponsorship has been withdrawn from a school in Dunstable - despite pupils already wearing uniforms emblazoned with their new logo to class.

Parents were stunned to find out this week that Barnfield Federation had pulled out as the academy sponsor for Brewers Hill Middle School at the eleventh hour.

Cllr Mark Versallion, Executive Member for Children's Services, said: "The council has worked in good faith with the school and Barnfield Federation over the past two years, so it is extremely regrettable that Barnfield have decided to withdraw as the sponsor."

A spokesman from Barnfield said: "It is extremely disappointing that we were unable to complete the conversion of Brewers Hill Middle School. However, the challenges surrounding the site proved to be insurmountable despite our best efforts."

"Immediate action has been taken to reimburse parents who have purchased the new uniform and we will be meeting with them to answer any questions they may have."

CHANGE: Brewers Hill Middle School was due to become an academy

TWO CHARGED OVER SHOOTING

TWO men have been charged in connection with a shooting in Fountains Road, Luton on Sunday, May 5.

Zeeshan Khan, 22 and Rene Lawrence, 24, both from Luton, have each been charged with two counts of conspiracy to murder.

Both appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court this week and have been remanded in custody ahead of a trial.

A third man has already been charged in relation to this offence and is also on remand awaiting trial.

ROAD WILL CLOSE OVERNIGHT

VAUXHALL Way will be closing between Crawley Green Road and Eaton Green Road to allow for essential maintenance works next week.

A recent structural assessment found that urgent steelwork repairs were required to be carried out to Eaton Green Road footbridge.

Works are taking place overnight between 8pm and 6am on Tuesday 15 and Wednesday 16 October to minimise disruption and inconvenience.

Throughout the duration of the works, the footbridge will also be closed.

A signed diversion will direct traffic along Eaton Green Road, Wigmore Lane and Crawley Green Road during those hours.

CONTACT THE COUNCIL ONLINE

LUTON Council is urging residents to contact the authority via social media.

The council's official Twitter profile (@lutoncouncil) and Facebook page (Luton Council) are rapidly growing, and can help with a variety of enquiries.

In addition, both provide regular updates on what the council is doing, as well as urgent announcements such as school closures and road gritting during the winter months.

Rob Leigh, communications and engagement strategy manager, said: "We're trying to use social media to help residents as best as possible. By aiming to respond to people quickly and efficiently online, we want to offer people another way of getting in touch."

Mystery of who owns pothole-ravaged road

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

RESIDENTS are struggling to find anyone who will take responsibility for a road which is plagued with potholes.

The road surface in Bushey Close, Whipsnade, has deteriorated over the last couple of years, with chunks of the tarmac becoming loose.

Homeowners are now worried that the road surface has become so bad that it will lead not only to damage to a vehicle, but could possibly cause a serious accident.

Although there are only four houses on the street, the road is also the main entrance to the Whipsnade Tree Cathedral, which is popular with tourists and dog walkers.

But those that live there are struggling to find out who has responsibility for maintaining the road.

Carolyn, who lives in the close, said: "The parish council held a meeting in January which was attended by Central Bedfordshire Council, ZSL, the owners of Whipsnade Zoo and the Heritage Trust, but there is still a huge question mark over who should be repairing this road."

"The council promote the Tree Cathedral as an attraction but won't

CONFUSED: Residents Carolyn and Brian survey the damaged surface

Do you know who?
Tell us at www.luton-dunstable.co.uk agree to resurface the road which the visitors come along."

A spokesman from Central Bedfordshire Council said: "While we appreciate the residents' concerns, the council has never had responsibility for this road and has advised the residents so."

"There does seem to be some positive action – the parish council is trying to help residents and is getting estimated costs for the work."

"We are prepared to make a small contribution as the road provides access to a bridleway – although this is in no way an acceptance that the road is maintained by us – and the National Trust, has said it is happy to contribute to the costs because it provides access for its visitors."

"This would need to be alongside residents' own input, as it is not a public highway, but we hope the residents can come to an agreement."

Shock as EDL leader quits group

SUPPORTERS of the Luton-based English Defence League (EDL) were left stunned this week as leader Tommy Robinson and fellow founder Kevin Carroll quit the group.

Having set up the EDL, infamous for its street protests, in 2009, the pair said that they wish to leave the organisation, because they feel they can no longer keep extremist elements at bay.

The group started in response to a demonstration by Muslim extremists as soldiers marched through Luton.

Since then, a number of large-scale protests have taken place through the town centre.

Breaking the news, Tommy Robinson, real name Stephen Lennon, said: "I have been considering this move for a long time because I recognise that, though street demonstrations have brought us to this point, they are no longer productive.

"I acknowledge the dangers of far-right extremism and the ongoing need to counter Islamist ideology not with violence but with better, democratic ideas."

On Twitter, he added: "For me this is a step forwards, not backwards." EDL supporters are believed to be meeting to discuss the future of the group and its leadership.

APPEAL: Paul's father Neville made an emotional plea for information about the murder his son

'Someone knows who killed Paul'

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE father of Paul Foster has made an emotional appeal for information about the murder of his son who was shot six months ago.

A £10,000 reward has now been offered by Bedfordshire Police for information relating to the murder which happened on Tuesday, April 9.

The 46-year-old, who was married with three children, was gunned down as he left a friends house in Brunel Road.

Police launched a murder investigation and three people were arrested in connection with the death, but to date no charges have been made.

On Tuesday, Paul's Father, Neville Foster (pictured above), pleaded with those with information about the murder to come forward.

He said: "There is someone out there who knows who killed Paul and I plead again for the sake of Paul's family

MURDER VICTIM: Paul Foster

please come forward and tell the police what you know.

"Paul does leave a family and a mother and father.

"His 2-year-old is crying and asking for his father every day. He keeps asking to go to Jamaica to try and find him.

"I can't sleep and when I go to bed at night I see Paul in front of me. It is very distressing.

Police have said that they believe the shooting was in relation to an ongoing criminal feud between different groups in Luton.

When asked what he would say to those caught up in the criminal activity, Neville replied: "Paul was very helpful to all of the boys in Luton.

"And I would ask everyone to calm themselves, pull themselves together, and be good."

Detective Superintendent Paul Fullwood, who also attended the conference with Chief Superintendent Jim Saunders, added: "A £10,000 reward has been made available in order to bring this case to a conclusion.

"We know there are people living locally who can solve this case.

"We hope the offer of cash will encourage them to do the right thing and come forward and speak to the police."

You only need a 5% deposit to secure your new home

Now is a good time to check out your mortgage options

The Government's decision to bring forward Help-to-Buy Phase 2 is encouraging news for first-time buyers and home movers, according to local leading estate agency Taylors Estate Agents in Luton.

The second phase of the scheme is a mortgage guarantee, which allows buyers to purchase a home worth £600,000 or less with just a 5% deposit. The mortgage guarantee applies to all property purchases, not just new-build homes, and the Government will guarantee up to 15% of the value of the property through an agreement with the lender.

Help-to-Buy Phase 2 was expected to launch in January 2014 but the Government has bought it forward to October 2013 as a continuation of its pledge to help more people across the country become homeowners. The Government aims to do this by increasing the supply of low-deposit mortgages and enable those with a 5% deposit to get on the housing ladder.

Commenting on the launch of Help-to-Buy Phase 2, Richard Yusuf, Regional Manager at Taylors Estate Agents said: "We welcome the launch of Help to Buy Phase 2 which will enable more people to get on the housing ladder and alleviate pent up demand for those wishing to purchase their first home or trade up. As part of Countrywide plc, the UK's largest mortgage broker, we are able to offer our customers access to a range of competitively priced mortgage products ranging from 95% to 60% loan-to-value. Through Help-to-Buy Phase 2 we are delighted to be able to offer a 90% and 95% loan-to-value mortgage from one of the high street's leading lenders."

The interest rates for a 95% mortgage available through Help-to-Buy Phase 2 mean that the mortgage is affordable and repayments are manageable for homebuyers. For many people the monthly mortgage payments will be cheaper than the cost of the average monthly rent.

"First-time buyers and home movers with just a 5% deposit should speak to a mortgage consultant now to find out more about the best mortgage options to suit their needs," says Stuart Mitchel, Financial Services Regional Manager at Countrywide Mortgage Services.

The first phase of the Help-to-Buy scheme was launched in April 2013 and offers loans of up to 20 per cent to all homebuyers who are purchasing a new-build property up to the value of £600,000. Buyers only need a 5% deposit to qualify and the Government will lend them an equity loan of 20% of the property value. The loan is interest-free for the first five years, after which buyers must pay an annual fee. Borrowers can repay the loan at any time.

Airport leads way on aircraft noise

BY JODIE JARRETT
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Airport says it expects to continue to lead the way in the mitigation of noise following the release of research which says the risk of stroke, heart and circulatory disease is higher in areas with a lot of aircraft noise.

The study of 3.6 million residents looked at 12 London boroughs and nine districts west of the capital exposed to noise related to Heathrow.

The investigations suggest a higher risk for both hospital admissions and deaths from stroke, heart and circulatory disease for those living where the aircraft noise is loudest.

Although the findings, which have been published in the British Medical Journal, stated high levels of aircraft noise were associated with these increased health risks for both hospital admissions and mortality in areas near Heathrow Airport, it said other explanations should also be considered.

LEADING THE WAY: Luton Airport says there are robust measures to mitigate the noise caused by air travel as part of a 55-point plan

A spokeswoman for Luton Airport said: "Experts refer to Luton as leading the industry in the mitigation of noise."

"We have a robust set of measures, which form part of the Luton Airport's 55-point Noise Action Plan.

"We are also trialling new navigation methods that enable aircraft to more accurately avoid flying over the more densely populated areas of our region."

"Aircraft technologies continue to develop, and together with our robust policies on noise, we expect that Luton will continue to lead the field in this area."

Fears as 100 jobs at fruit importer at risk

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A UNION has said that it will do 'everything it can' to minimise the number of job losses at Luton-based business S.H. Pratt.

This week, the fruit importing company, who are also known as Pratt's Bananas, announced that around 100 jobs were at risk due to 'changing market conditions'.

Based on Laporte Way, the firm is well known for importing, ripening and delivering fruit to UK retailers.

A statement released by Pratt's operations director, David Bateman, said: "We're deeply sorry about the affect this will have upon some of our employees and we will do everything possible to support our people during this difficult time."

WORRY: Around 100 employees could lose their jobs at Pratt's Bananas

But Sue Hackett, the GMB union regional officer, said: "This is terrible news for the workers and for Luton's economy. GMB will seek talks with Pratt's to fully understand whether it is big retailers which are driving this restructuring."

Petition against mobile library closures

RESIDENTS have submitted a petition to save Luton's Mobile Library Service - which is currently at risk due to council cuts.

The document, which has around 130 signatures, says:

"It seems incomprehensible to remove a flexible service that could provide access for the public for the borough." The petition will be heard by the council's executive on Monday, October 21.

your letters

Passes can be used on the new Busway

SIR – Following the publication of Sue Goddard's letter last week, I would like to clarify that concessionary bus passes are accepted on busway services in the same way that they are on other buses across Luton and Central Bedfordshire, in line with terms and conditions.

A simple check by a member of your staff could have avoided any unnecessary confusion.

Ken Toye,
Passenger Transport Unit
Service Manager,
Luton Borough Council

SIR – Once against the busway, always against the busway for some people – don't let facts get in the way.

Unlike Sue Goddard, I have been on the busway – wonderful, a very smooth ride.

LAUNCH: The £91m busway was officially opened at the end of September

Ten minutes Luton to Dunstable, what's not to like? If she had been with me she would have found that she could use her bus pass – they are 'permitted'. I used mine as usual.

I am surprised Luton on Sunday did not correct this, as it could deter a lot of people from even trying it.

Ms Goddard trots out the hoary old stories – the money was specifically allotted for the busway and could not have been used for 'more bobbies on the beat'.

It will take a few months, of course, to assess its success or otherwise.

If it's a flop, I'll admit I was wrong.

I trust that Sue Goddard and her friends will do the same.
Mike Broadbent,
Limbury, Luton

Error is now rectified

SIR – With reference to my letter you kindly printed in last week's LoS, I have since heard from several busway drivers that pensioners' passes are accepted, but was initially informed by a member of the information crew on the day of the grand opening that they were not.

I assume therefore that several replies to my original letter will be printed but nevertheless, the rest of its contents still stand.

Sue Goddard,
Toddington Road, Luton

Busway is open to all

SIR – While I would agree with Sue Goddard regarding parts of Luton that will not benefit from the busway, I must make it quite clear that she is completely wrong about concessionary bus passes.

They are valid on all bus routes on the busway whatever company operates them.

This information is available on www.busway.net

I felt I should respond to her letter as it might mislead some pensioners who have bus passes.
Stuart Ottaway,
Grampian Way, Luton

A great big thank you

SIR – I wanted to praise the Luton Dog Warden.

On Monday a friendly white 18-month-old Staffie was clearly lost at the Limbury Mead shops.

The dog was running amongst traffic and following shoppers around.

Eventually it made its way to our front garden and we took it in. A call to the council had the dog warden with us in 25 minutes. Suitably captured, the dog was on its way to a holding kennel for seven days.

We even had a call to say that said animal had arrived. I am very impressed.

Alan Clark,
Holmscroft Road, Luton

Protect the badgers

SIR – I was extremely interested in reading Steve Lowe's column about killing the badger population in this country, simply because the farmers hate them, as they used to hate the rabbits.

This happened during the war, simply because the farmers objected to their crops being consumed.

At least the farmers are not setting gin traps, as they used to on the rabbit runs, which would choke a rabbit to death as it tried to escape.

I am absolutely sure that if the farmers consulted with the RSPCA, they would come up with a less callous answer to the problem than mass slaughter – although some would be taking part to collect the skins and meat as used to be done with rabbits.

But shooting is better than poisoning and is more humane.

However, it still resembles the inhumanity of the bird shoots where grouse and partridges are all encouraged to propagate, so that the farmers can profit by holding an annual shoot for sport, as they call it.

So will farmers start to hold badger shoots once or twice a year? At least there will be more badger meat on sale at the butchers.

George Donohoe,
Manor Road, Luton

Change opening time

SIR – Has anybody gone out on a Sunday morning to either a DIY store or a supermarket, only to get there and find it doesn't open until 10, 10.30, or 11am?

Why all this confusion on opening times on a Sunday.

We all know the rules about Sunday opening hours but why all the different times?

Surely it's not rocket science for everybody concerned to agree to a time of opening and closing.

I went to a retail park with about 20 stores this Sunday at about 10.20am.

I found that the store that I wanted to go into didn't open until 11am, but the one next door had opened at 10am – a couple of other people had arrived at the same time as me.

You either have to wait or go another day.

Come on people, get your act together and think of your customer for a change.

AD Currant,
Lime Avenue, Luton

Fed up with politics

SIR – I get fed up with people telling me that a vote for UKIP is a wasted vote.

I've been voting for nearly 40-years.

We've either got to suffer at the hands of the Tories, or Labour, with a bit of the Lib-Dems thrown in.

Look at the state of the country. They are all cowards. They are more concerned with their own political careers, than what is good for the country.

They can't even talk about immigration.

A vote for Labour, Tories or the Lib-Dems is a wasted vote. It's time for a change.

John Tucker,
Bracklesham Gardens, Luton

Diving show returns

SIR – I am delighted that the television show Splash will be filmed in Luton once again.

I understand that some people may be unable to swim while the filming process is taking place – but I think that the benefits from having the programme back will be great for the town.

After the last series I remember there was a dramatic increase in the numbers of people becoming active and taking up diving.

I'm sure many more will be inspired by this year's show too. How can that be a bad thing?

Now that Active Luton and the authority are aware of some of the problems that comes with putting on a live television show, measures could be implemented to minimise the disruption.

Maybe some swimming lessons could be rearranged or free lessons organised to replace those missed?

Your comments on the stories on our website this week:

Busway is now open

@MartyHowes – Letter in @LutonOnSunday about busway and pensioners' bus passes is based on a complete misunderstanding. OAPs welcome!

@KeirGale – And misunderstanding that the money could've been spent on anything else. Govt grant specifically for the busway.

No replacement sign

@masekwm – Wasn't there a budget surplus at the end of last year? This lack of care for public appearance will soon put off business.

@LutonEye 7 – Sign of the times.

More jobs for coppers

@JohnEJefferson – So taxpayers got to finance training of 80 untrained officers because it let 80 too many trained officers go. Poor.

Taxi want attack help

@lutonexcelsior – taxi drivers should be protected, however certain taxi companies in my opinion are not safe to use.

Man has goats stolen

@AsadA_Khan – #Goats? I feel for the man, but why not have a more conventional #pet? Or not leave it in the open? #baffled

Luton MP is promoted

@richardhowitt – Great news that #Luton South MP @gavinshuker promoted & will work on development issues.

Splash is back again

Luton Hotel Residence – I tried to get tickets, which are free, for the last series being filmed. They asked me what I looked like and how I dressed and how excitable I was. I am ugly, but not repulsive, middle-aged, square and dress like a George at ASDA. I'm not over-excitable. They didn't want me and didn't give me tickets.

I spy with my little eye... MI5 going all Big Brother

If our security services can only protect this democracy by taking away our freedoms then what is the point?

The new director of MI5, Andrew Parker has been speaking.

It was a public speech made to a private audience. How very British secret service.

In the speech Mr Parker said intelligence gathering by GCHQ had foiled many terrorist plots.

As that is their job and raison d'être it does not seem that surprising.

In fact the opposite would be more worrying, although of course we only have his word for their success as they are not inspected by Ofspy. I digress.

They only achieved this by being able to spy on everyone, that is you and me.

This is done by accessing all our emails, twitter, Facebook, text messaging and so on.

Do you care if it foils terrorists? I do, because I do not trust them to simply worry about terrorist attacks.

As they are an espionage organisation, neither do I trust them to be telling us the truth.

The fact that they are prying into the thoughts and activities of all citizens is somewhat worrying and has more than a bit of 1984 about it.

As is the response to newspapers daring to point this out.

Apparently, and Call-me-Dave agrees, it is dangerous to know that in a democracy, our secret service is spying on us.

No doubt if people start disappearing, we should not report it but pretend it has not happened.

Because it is being done to protect us from our enemies. But of course, our enemies are not always that easily defined and can come down to your political beliefs.

I remember the Government in 1981, having defeated Argentina in an unjust, unnecessary war, saying that it was now time to 'defeat the enemy within' (PS I don't hate Britain).

That enemy was trade unions and their members.

Now I do not want terrorist attacks killing and maiming innocent people, either on these shores, or anywhere else but neither do I want unelected, unaccountable people taking decisions behind closed doors that could impact on all our lives.

Time Mr Parker, and Mr Cameron, for a bit of openness and a bit of a debate.

PPS - This has been got out by a friend.

Did you know that forests in Europe, which provide wood for making into paper and many other widely used materials, are 30% larger than in 1950? In fact they're increasing by 1.5 million football pitches every year.*

If you love reading your favourite newspaper, isn't it good to know that it's made from natural and renewable wood.

Famous faces at exclusive 'lock-in'

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

STUDENTS from Luton flocked to The Mall for a special 'lock-in' event this week, with a number of celebrities making an appearance.

College and university pupils, who were invited to the shopping centre on Tuesday evening, were wowed by a performance from Britain's Got Talent finalist Jordan O'Keefe.

The Only Way Is Essex star Lydia Bright also brought pop-up shop Bella Sorella to The Mall, with support from her famous mum Debbie plus sister and co-owner Georgia.

The crowds were also treated throughout the night to exclusive discounts at selected stores.

Lavinia Douglass, marketing manager at The Mall, Luton, added "We are sure our local students went home very happy!"

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

BEDFORDSHIRE University students celebrated the launch of a new bar and venue – SUB2 – in Luton this week.

The university's Students' Union, kept the new venue in the heart of the town a secret until it opened its doors to the surprise and delight of students on Wednesday evening.

The bar, which was formerly The Park, on Park Street, will be a student-only venue hosting an eclectic mix of events, with something for everyone.

Designed by the university's own interior design lecturer Dawn Hesketh-Joslin, the space has been specifically created to be adaptable, with plans to hold everything from nightclub events to table tennis matches, and kick-boxing training.

It's been a whirlwind transformation for the Student Union, having taken over the venue on Friday, September 20, they had just two weeks to get the bar ready for its grand opening.

Following the launch, Beds SU President Dan Login said: "We have been looking for a better venue for over a year now, ever since I became president and even before."

"As soon as the university bought the building, the staff had to work day and night to have it ready.

"It has been a crazy period of time but it was great to finally see so many students having fun in what we hope will be an amazing space for them to enjoy."

Beds SU hope to encourage students to come forward with different ideas for events at SUB2 and already have plenty of student-led nights lined-up in the near future.

MasterCard boss is credit to old school

A SPECIAL guest speaker gave an inspirational talk to students during an awards evening at Lealands High School.

Former pupil Marion King, who is now President of MasterCard UK and Ireland, encouraged the pupils to work hard and achieve their goals, adding: "A girl from Sundon Park can go on to lead one of the top companies in the country and hold a meeting with the President of China!"

Ms King said she will continue working with the school, while some students have arranged work experience with her.

£12k fine for former owner of takeaway

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE former owner of a High Town takeaway has been prosecuted for 'ignoring' health regulations.

When Luton Council Food and Safety officers first visited Hajeer Peri Peri on High Town Road in September 2012, they were concerned to find grease was dripping down the walls into puddles on the floor and a dirty brown hand print was found on the lavatory door.

Officers were also alarmed to find raw meat next to ready-to-eat foods.

Staff were instructed to clean the premises and there was some obvious improvement when officers visited on four subsequent occasions.

But when officers visited again in February this year they found staff preparing food without wearing aprons, grease inside the fridges and black dirt on the floor.

Basharat Hussain, who owned the business at the time, pleaded guilty to eight hygiene offences at Luton Magistrates' Court on Monday, October 7.

He was ordered to pay fines totalling £12,000 plus a £15 victim surcharge and the council's costs of £1,431.

Sara Hawkes, technical officer in the council's food and safety team, said: "Businesses that continue to ignore health and safety standards face prosecution and fines."

The business is no longer run by Mr Hussain.

Underpass tells history of town

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SUBWAY in Stopsley has been given a new lease of life thanks to Luton Culture, Luton council and students and staff from the University of Bedfordshire.

Residents had registered complaints about the state of the underpass, and asked whether it could be brightened up in some way.

In response the council worked in partnership with Luton Culture and the university to run a competition for graphic design and art students. They were briefed to create a mural that celebrated the community and the town in general.

Local artist Abi Spendlove judged the entries and decided that the winners were Monika Ciapala and Alan Fletcher.

Their creation explored Luton's vast cultural history, with panels telling a story of the town since the prehistoric ages.

The unique artwork also reflects some of the important industry that has been part of the town over the years, including the famous hat trade and the airport.

REVAMPED: The Mayor of Luton, Councillor Sheila Roden, officially opened the subway, helped by pupils from Stopsley Primary School

A team of artists commissioned by Luton Culture worked over the summer to paint the murals, while the authority's street cleaning team protected the work by coating the walls with a special anti-graffiti sealant.

To celebrate the transformation, a launch event was held on Friday, September 27.

Residents, councillors and pupils from Stopsley Primary School were in attendance to see the unveiling of the mural and Councillor Sheila Roden, Mayor of Luton, officially cut the ribbon.

A spokesperson for Luton Borough Council said: "Thanks to a lot of hard work from many people, Stopsley now has a hugely improved new subway for local people to use."

"It is fantastic to be able to carry out a project knowing that it is exactly what local people want."

Marathon route to be traffic-free

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE organisers of the first Love Luton half-marathon are reminding local residents that the route will be closed to motorists on the day.

To ensure the safety of those running the 13.1-mile race, which takes in part of the Luton Hoo estate and ends in the town centre, it has been decided that the event will be traffic-free.

On the day diversions will be put in place around the affected roads to ensure motorists can still get around the town.

The marathon is scheduled for Sunday, October 27, and will start at 10am at Venue 360 in Gipsy Lane, in Luton.

As part of the event, which is sponsored by Boxfit and Stopsley Striders, Love Luton is encouraging runners to raise funds for 'The NICU Appeal - caring for premature and sick babies at the Luton & Dunstable Hospital'.

The organisers of the half-marathon have added that they are still looking for volunteers to help out with the event.

For more information or to express your interest, you can e-mail events@loveluton.org.uk or telephone 01582 546265.

Join comical Gina for one night of gags and giggles

COMEDIAN

GINA YASHERE LIVE

Luton Library Theatre
Friday, October 18, 8pm

WITH the nights starting to get darker and the weather colder there's probably no better time to brighten things up and have a good giggle with the comical Gina Yashere.

She has been a stand up and TV star in the UK for several years and broke onto the American comedy circuit with her appearances on Last Comic Standing, where she made it to the final 10. Gina is also known in the US for her regular, hilarious appearances on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno.

What you might not know is that Gina's sellout live appearances are legendary.

Her bombastic delivery, infectious personality and cheeky observations have wowed audiences not just in the UK and the US but also in Japan, Dubai, Hong Kong, Singapore, Indonesia, Australia, Canada, South Africa, and all over Europe.

She hails from London via Nigerian parents and shoots from the hip. Her unique take on being both a cultural insider and outsider never fails to raise the roof.

Yashere made her comedy debut at the Edinburgh Festival in 1997.

The show sold out almost immediately and overnight both audiences and critics were smitten.

Since those early days, Gina is now one of the most highly sought after comedians, selling out theatres, releasing a critically acclaimed DVD and making numerous appearances on TV, radio, and the big screen.

Tickets are £15 in advance or £17.50 on the door, from 01582 547474 or www.lutonculture.com.

Help raise cash for Keech at fun pub fundraiser

WHAT'S ON

CHARITY NIGHT

The Melson Arms, John Street, Luton
Saturday, October 19, 8pm

A FAMILY-RUN pub will be holding a fundraising event in aid of local charity Keech Hospice.

The special evening, which will kick off at 8pm, will include music and a raffle, all to help raise funds for a good cause.

Entertainment will come in the form of outstanding four-piece rock band First Time Lucky, who pride themselves on combining high-energy performances with a professional, friendly and flexible attitude.

If you're feeling lucky, there will also be an auction and raffle with lots of great prizes waiting to be won - so why not head along for a night of fun, which is all in the name of charity.

All money raised during the night will be donated to Keech Hospice Care, which looks after adults living in Luton and South Bedfordshire and children from across Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Milton Keynes.

All of the charity's services are offered free of charge, every single day of the year, which is only made possible because of the generous support of the local community.

Tickets for the event are only £3, and can be bought from either the Keech Hospice shop in Park Street, Luton, or the Melson Arms.

Alternatively, customers will also be able to pay on the door on the night.

COMEDY

ROB BECKETT LIVE

HARPENDEN PUBLIC HALLS
Thursday, October 24, 7.30pm

WITH his trademark grin Rob Beckett is hitting the road with the sole aim of making his audiences laugh a lot and leave happier than when they arrived.

And this shouldn't be too much of a challenge for the multi-award winning comedian as he travels across the country.

With appearances on I'm A Celebrity Get Me Out Of Here Now, 8 Out of 10 Cats and John Bishop's Only Joking, this 'Live' debut tour is highly anticipated.

While heading out on the road might be a first for this funnyman, he has already won high praise from critics who have described his show as 'a little short of a revelation', a 'likeable high tempo comic' and with 'the confidence of a veteran'.

Tickets for Rob Beckett Live are £10 and on sale now from the Harpenden Public Halls Box Office.

For further information and bookings, call 01582 767525 or visit www.harpendenpublichalls.co.uk.

No time for clowning around – there's circus tickets to be won

COMPETITION

CIRCUS WONDERLAND

Stockwood Park, Luton

October 23-October 27

ROLL up, roll up – we're all off to the circus.

The brilliant Big Top of Circus Wonderland is coming to town this month and we have six family tickets (admitting up to five people) to give away.

With side-splitting comedy and daredevil thrills, Circus Wonderland takes you into a fantasy world of magic and excitement where anything can happen.

Get ready for a close encounter with the Duo Stefanelli, who fly through the roof of the Big Top in their glittering spaceship, while the amazing Alejandro will set pulses racing as he swoops and soars above your heads on his death defying trapeze.

Angel Bojilov can juggle and spin plates on sticks, all while perching precariously on a tightrope of course, and Hungarian State Circus star Laci will balance his wife Klaudia at the top of a 20ft pole – on his head!

The show also features the award winning Popolino Musical Clowns, Kakehole (pictured) and Popol, who will be arriving with a trunk full of tricks and will be accompanied by their lovable friend Bertie the cartoon Bear.

The show will be appearing at Stockwood Park in London Road, Luton for five days. Performance times are weekdays at 4.30pm and 7.30pm, Saturday at 2pm and 5pm and Sunday at 2pm only.

Tickets are £12 for adults and £10 for children, or £7 on the first day.

For further information contact the box office on 07531 612240.

To be in with a chance of winning one of the six family tickets we have on offer, just answer this question:

What is the name of the Musical Clowns bear sidekick?

Send your answer, along with your name, address and daytime telephone number, to lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk no later than Sunday, October 20.

Gray treble as Town

FOOTBALL

HYDE

BY TOM SHARP

IT was not the Hyde-ing most expected but no-one at Kenilworth Road will care.

A virtuoso Andre Gray performance saw him bag a hat-trick and provide Luke Guttridge with the other as the Hatters handed Hyde their eleventh consecutive Skrill Premier defeat.

Steve McNulty's unfortunate own-goal seconds before half time had given the Tigers a glimmer of hope but the Hatters' second-half assault was enough to see them climb to third.

Another three points for Town but in truth a victory that should be dedicated to the excellent Gray.

As expected, in the build-up to this clash Still stressed he would take this encounter with the league's bottom side as seriously as any other.

He underlined his desire to avoid a potential banana skin by making just one alteration from the side that stood toe-to-toe with Aldershot on Tuesday as Jake Howells made way for Alex Lawless.

This did not prove totally decisive at first though as despite Gray's best efforts, they found it hard to break down the Manchester side in the early going.

A second-minute goal rightly disallowed for offside, despite wild celebrations from the Oak Road End, opened to Hatters fans for the first time in 22 years, was soon followed up by a well-saved left-foot curler almost identical to his Aldershot goal in midweek.

Hyde momentarily showed flashes of why they may not be a lost cause quite yet as Andre's namesake Reece hit a stinging long-range effort straight at Tyler.

Their brave resistance was soon unlocked though as Gray grabbed the first of his treble in the 16th minute.

After setting himself with an exquisite first touch, the pacey frontman shrugged off captain Will Haining's challenge and smashed the ball past David Carnell.

It was by no means a foregone conclusion from there though.

Moments later, full-back Josh Brizell's dipping shot needed another Tyler palm around the post and from the resulting corner, Luke Ashworth tantalisingly headed inches wide.

The Hatters failed to read the warning signs and to the delight of Hyde's defiant 25 followers they carved out their first goal in six matches. Albeit scored by a Town man.

Brizell's swerving delivery evaded Ronnie Henry and McNulty and as Collins charged in to get the vital touch, it was McNulty who

Victories all round on successful Saturday

LOCAL RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON RFC, Dunstablians and Stockwood Park all won yesterday, giving a clean-sweep of rugby victories to towns that continue to go from strength to strength on the pitch.

Luton travelled to Boreham Wood to play Old Haberdashers and ran in seven tries, winning 41-21, on an afternoon that Backs Coach Nick Rhodes described as a game of two halves.

"After the interval we just kept them under pressure, they had nowhere to go," he said. "There's a slight hill, it doesn't look much, but I think it contributed to us being on the back foot for much of the first half."

Luton trailed 18-12 at the break with Doug Fluker and Tom Mahendren scoring first half tries, with Brandon Lewsey, Aiden Kenny, Tom Wilmore and Ryan Staff going over in the second period to give Luton their second league win of the London 1 North campaign.

"In the second period our fitness told, our defence was excellent, we were onto everything," said Rhodes.

DUNSTABLIANS overcame unbeaten Lutterworth 21-13 to make it three from four in the Midlands 2 East South for the Dees.

With the teams tied 6-6 at the break, following two Danny Mills penalties, Dees went down to 14 men following a red-card, giving themselves everything to do.

However, second half tries from Jordan Warner and Joe Murphy ensured the Dees enjoyed the afternoon's spoils, with Murphy also adding five points from the boot to make the game safe.

"We had a much better second half," said Dees Centre Campbell Haig. "We bounced back."

STOCKWOOD PARK ran in 11 tries at London Road and they now share top-spot in the Midlands 3 East (South) table, having now won three in a row.

They thumped Northampton Casuals 72-24, on an afternoon that saw nine different try scorers for the Lutonian Club in their best performance this term.

James Hankey and Dan Needham both scored twice with Dave Keating, Tom Edmonds, Casimir Abaka, Karl Jennings, Darren May, James Peddar and Rob Hartley also going over to complete the demolition and ensure Stockwood go into next weekend in fine form.

guided the ball cruelly past his unassuming keeper.

As comical as Montenegro's calamitous effort for England's second goal on Friday but no laughing matter for the home fans with scattered voices of discontent raining down at the referee's half-time whistle.

Still's soothing team-talk had now potentially turned into a more scathing surmise of first half proceedings.

Half-time perhaps came at a bad time for the Tigers though as they failed to gain a foothold from the restart and just moments after Gray almost doubled his afternoon's tally he supplied the ball for Luton to retake the lead in the 51st minute.

The former Hinckley United striker squared unselfishly for Luke Guttridge to side-foot home from five yards to calm the nerves.

Four minutes later and after looking in danger of a potentially embarrassing draw at the break, the Hatters looked all but out of sight.

Paul Benson rose highest to flick on to Gray who lashed in with aplomb from 15 yards.

After a creditable display the wheels soon began to fall off for Hyde as they numerically fell behind as well.

Gray's blistering pace again wreaked havoc and this time it was too much for last man Ashworth who cynically brought him down and promptly saw red.

Things got messy in Hyde's opening game of the season against Forest Green as they conceded eight after Brizell's dismissal and from now on it was a case of damage limitation.

A pulled hamstring for keeper Carnell did not help though and with no sub keeper on the bench he soldiered on much to the delight of Gray who completed his hat-trick past the injured goal-stopper.

Job done and banana skin negotiated as Town cruised home in first gear. Hardly a first-rate performance but as Still knows, points and not necessarily performances, make prizes come the season's end.

The Hatters are now eight points behind leaders Cambridge United and are two points behind Kidderminster Harriers in second.

I 'boxed his head off' says Reynolds after maiden pro victory

majority of his youth fights. "I smashed it," he said. "He was supposed to be a big puncher and I was told just to move around but he didn't land a glove on me.

"In the first round, he's come running out and I've landed two shots straight away and then he was just on the run for the whole fight.

"I think this was one of my easiest fights because I didn't make it hard for myself. I just set my shots up nicely and was nice and relaxed.

"I boxed his head off. It was a good win."

The West Ham ABC sparrer also won an award for 'Best Away Boxer' in Colchester.

However, Reynolds said he wouldn't have known about it had he not forgotten to buy the DVD of his fight.

"I didn't even know I won it," he said. "We all came out and I forgot to buy the DVD of the fight so I ran back in and the ring announcer's going 'ladies and gentlemen, Jordan Reynolds has just come back, round of applause'.

"I've looked up and everyone's clapping me and laughing and I'm thinking 'what's happened here?'.

"The Colchester promoter has come up and said 'you're the best away boxer'. I got a nice gold-plated trophy [for the fight] and a big long one for Best Away Boxer."

Reynolds is treating his award-winning Charlton win as a warm-up in preparation for defending his national title, now called the Ambition County Championships, this month.

"You could say that was a warm-up fight," he said. "It wasn't supposed to be. I'll be fighting two or three times in the same day but I've got a big fight against Kwaku Sarpong. He's two years older.

"We've always seen each other box around the Championship. He's a strong lad but I should be too much for him.

"I can have a bad night if I make it hard for myself.

"I've just got to be smart and just do what I do."

Rovers unsatisfied with a draw but Town secure victory

LOCAL FOOTBALL

BY MATT DESAI

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

A period of four minutes midway through the second-half was the only time either side could affect the scoreline, with Jon Bennett giving the hosts the lead before Tommy Hull deservedly pulled Rovers level.

The visitors were intent on stamping their authority on the match from the first whistle and can only blame missed chances for not leaving Buckinghamshire with three points.

Bilal Hassan had the game's first chance when his near post effort forced a good save from 'keeper Jordan Eggleton.

Jermaine Hall was next to go close for Barton midway through the first-half, narrowly heading wide from Rhys Hoeness' cross.

The second period began much the same as the first and Marlow took a surprise lead on sixty-four minutes when forward Jon Bennett found the net. Rovers responded immediately however, and drew level through Hull after fine work on the edge of the box from Hassan and Hall.

The visitors had countless chances to secure victory in the closing stages and should have gone ahead soon after when Hoeness volleyed over from inside the box.

The forward was at the forefront of the action again, with five minutes remaining his cross found substitute Bobby Dance who could only curl an effort wide.

Barton will count themselves hard done by to come away with only a share of the spoils, as they remain in third place.

Elsewhere in the Southern League Central, DUNSTABLE TOWN moved to within one point of top-spot after a 2-1 away win at Egham Town.

After an uneventful first-half, Tony Burnett put The Blues ahead on 66 minutes, before Damen Pickering doubled the visitors' advantage with just over ten minutes to play.

Egham pulled a goal back in the closing stages through Brendan Matthews but Town held on to record a fine away win.

A late Conner Smith strike earned AFC DUNSTABLE a point against London Tigers.

Craig Butler gave the hosts an early lead from the spot and it remained that way until The Tigers responded two minutes after the break.

The visitors went ahead with twenty minutes left but Smith's last-gasp effort rescued a late point for The ODs and a 2-2 draw.

Second half changes help Hatters to fire

HATTERS

BY TOM SHARP
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

JOHN Still is quite often his own greatest critic and at times this season he has been quick to admit his mistakes.

However, a tactical switch-around at half time against Hyde yesterday, with a shock result on the cards, saw him a much happier man at the conclusion of his side's eventual 4-1 victory over the Skrill Premier's bottom club.

Still's decision to tinker with Luke Guttridge's position opened the door for the classy midfielder to grab a 51st minute goal and with that their gritty Northern opponents, who had been 1-1 at the break, duly caved in.

"The first half was quite tough because Hyde showed what they are made of," said Hatters boss Still. "The second half was just a case of adjusting and getting Luke to move into that left-hand channel which he can do."

"Once we did that, we could have scored before we did but I was really pleased because we moved the ball a lot quicker and found the gaps and openings to finish the game off." Guttridge may have again provided the cutting-edge touches to baffle Hyde but it was hat-trick hero Andre Gray's dead-eyed finishing and all-round potency that saw Town snaffle maximum points.

Having flitted between the Hatters starting line-up and the bench so far this campaign Gray has had to bide his time for an opportunity but is now joint top scorer with Guttridge on six goals, and the sprightly forward is looking back to his best.

"He started the season slow but a few did so that was not the concern," said Still.

"The main thought process behind Andre not being involved from the start every game was if we had left him in when it was not going right for him, his confidence would have taken a knock."

"I think it was right to give him a rest and some time in training because now he is coming up with the goods again."

"Credit to Andre because he never moaned or sulked, he just got on with it and he has scored a wonderful hat-trick here today."

Seven games unbeaten and with the goals flowing, Still thinks everyone is on the same wavelength.

"We know we will not win it on our own," said Still. "In the last few weeks everyone has bought into 'Team Luton'."

Luton boxer Jordan sets his sights on an Olympic place

BOXING

BY LUKE PETERSON
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUTON boxer Jordan Reynolds says the Olympics are 'heading his way' after turning down Frank Warren's offer to turn pro.

The teenager has been invited to an England youth training camp this month but is fighting at the same time so will undergo GB assessment in December.

"The training for England is on the same day as I'm boxing," said Reynolds. "It's only for England versus Ireland but I'd rather box in a national championships."

"So they said 'come back in December for GB trials'."

"If that goes well, I've got Olympics heading my way."

Should the trials be unsuccessful, however, Reynolds says he may accept promoter Warren's - who has had the likes of Amir Khan, Ricky Hatton and 'Prince' Naseem Hamed on his books - offer to turn professional.

"I'm getting a lot of offers now and most lads think 'I'm turning pro, I'm getting money'," he said.

"I don't want to get blinded by the dollar. I've been offered to turn pro by the promoter Frank Warren but I'm too young."

"If I'm not in the GB in two years, I'll turn pro, but I want to have had about 90 amateur fights by then."

The National boxing champion won his first senior bout by a unanimous points decision against Norwich ABC's Ryan Charlton.

Reynolds says it was easier than the
